Brookwood Football Commemorative Brick Sale

The Brookwood Broncos Touchdown Club invites you to join them in continuing the improvement of the Brookwood Athletic facility. Your support will help ensure the continued success and tradition of excellence at Brookwood High School. As many of you know, a commemorative brick wall was constructed between the lodge and ticket booth in 2006 which has become a permanent part of the Brookwood Football facility.

Bricks are available for purchase that may be placed in memory of players, coaches, businesses, and loved ones. The opportunity to be a permanent part of Brookwood Football will allow you, your family, and friends to leave a lasting and memorable record of your participation and support for the excellence in our athletic program. Your tax deductible contribution will support the funding of improvements to our athletic facility.

Each commemorative brick will be handcrafted with a black message of your choosing. You will be permitted 3 lines of up to 14 characters, numbers, and/or spaces per line for each brick. Be creative!

MESSAGE must be Max. of 14 positions per line. Max. of 3 lines per brick. Each line will be centered.
